ORDER

In a March 6, 2008 Order, the Court stated that corporate plaintiff C.O.M. Trading, Inc. ("C.O.M.") could not proceed as a pro se litigant and that if an attorney admitted to practice before this Court failed to enter an appearance on behalf of C.O.M. on or before April 11, 2008, its claims would be dismissed. Because C.O.M. remains unrepresented in this action, this plaintiff is terminated from the action and its claims are dismissed without prejudice.

SO ORDERED.
